GOOD RULES FOR THE GIRLS

Issued by the Women's Imperial Health Association of Great Britain and Ireland.

Of more than passing interest to the women of this country are the following rules of conduct issued to "the girls of Great Britain" by the Women's Imperial Health Association of Great Britain and Ireland.

The future of our country is in your hands.

Look your best by all means, but be your best also; the first attracts to begin with, but the second produces the most lasting effect.

You must obey the laws of hygiene, respecting fresh air, exercise, good food, cleanliness and suitable clothing. A healthy girlhood is the best foundation for a happy life.

You must know about cooking, housekeeping and domestic economy.
You must learn about the feeding and care of children; this knowledge does not come by instinct, as many suppose.

Remember that home making is the most dignified and important profession in the world.

Attend, if you can, "continuation classes" in personal and domestic hygiene in your own house, remembering that a good daughter makes the best wife.

Choose the best companions and read the best books you can find. Accept only the best men as your husbands, paying as much attention to their character as to their personal appearance. — Woman's National Weekly.

NOW THEY DON'T SPEAK

Miss Antique—I dreamed of an elopement last night.

Miss Caustique—You shouldn't let your imagination run away with you like that.

FIRST VETERINARY SCHOOL.

The third fiftieth anniversary celebrating the erection in Lyon of a veterinary school will be held in that city about the middle of May, 1912. Preparations are now forming to commemorate the event in a fitting manner, and invitations are being issued to all veterinary schools in the United States and elsewhere for the purpose of having delegates in as large a number as possible.

It is authentically recorded in the annals of veterinary science that the world's first veterinary school was founded in Lyon in 1761, since which time similar institutions have been inaugurated in many countries, the last being reported from Abysinia.

THE MOVEMENT IN EGYPT.

Now it is the Moslem women of Egypt who are taking part in the women movement, having asked of the Moslem congress the right to attend prayers and sermons in the mosques, a privilege already granted to the women of Constantinople.
They also ask that the primary education of young women be made obligatory; that young girls be admitted to schools of medicine; to use means to prevent polygamy and the abuse of divorce and to teach Mohammed-dan girls sewing, housekeeping and hygiene.

ONCE NURSED THE KING.

The one desire of Mrs. Ann Roberts, who was for a year the foster-mother of George V., is said to be to go back from America to England to spend her last days in her old home. She is living with her brother, Mr. Richard Edmunds of Poultney, Vt., but it is hoped that something will be done in her behalf by the British government.

HIS CALCULATIONS.

She—I'll be ready in a minute, dear.

He—All right. I'll just fix up this paper while I'm waiting. It won't take more than an hour."

CIRCUS PARADE

ON NEW PLAN.

Most Costly of All Street Pageants Given By Forepaugh-Sells Brothers.

The Great Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' circus has enlarged its policy of generous entertainment by the creation and construction of the greatest street parade in the history of the show business. This new pageant will be seen in the streets of Hopkinsville on Thursday, Sept. 28, exactly as it was presented in New York City where it received unbounded praise by press and public.

This procession will be unlike anything ever seen in America. It is an entirely new form of entertainment.
With the advantage of many years extensive travel in all the countries of the earth, and fortunes at its command, the management brings forth a free spectacle that has required four years of constant work to build. It is a veritable world's fair on wheels, costing $1,000,000.
The wonders and the people of every civilized nation and many savage lands contribute to its variety of attractions.

MARIE PEROT
Automobile Somersault Rider COMING WITH

Forepaugh & Sells Bros. Circus.

It is only natural to expect this show, above all others, to have a great parade, yet all who see it are pleased far beyond their fondest hopes. Its wealth and its splendor are the direct result of years of travel through five continents, where it is as well known as in its native land. It has required four years of research in all the foreign lands, civil and savage, to bring together the strange types of the human race, rich and unusual vehicles of barbarian manufacture, floats of European and Asiatic design and workmanship, massive floats of Italian statuary and costly tapestry, drapings and costumes of Oriental weaving. For two years artists, artisans and mechanics have worked night and day in the Liverpool workshops of the show, building the equipment for this mighty parade.

The result of all those years of toil cannot be told in words. The former brilliant parades of this big show but merely suggest the splendor of this season's free street spectacle. And it is three miles long. In keeping with the parade is the entirely new program under the main tent. The talent has been selected from many countries. It is abundant in novelty, displaying not one thing to recall the past. Of thrillers there are at least a dozen, all sure-fire sensations of the first degree.
It requires a company of 350 performers to give the many acts.
There are fifty clowns to provide the saucy of comedy.

The two performances to be given here will be exactly the same as those presented in all the large cities. Not one detail has been changed since the spring opening.
Those who wish to avoid the rush on the show grounds may buy reserved seats and admissions on show day at The Anderson-Fowler Drug Co. at the regular ticket-wagon prices.
